ITEM	DETAILS
Teaching and Learning	Teaching and learning is taking place online at present due to Covid closures. A questionnaire has been sent to parents to ascertain their experience of remote teaching and learning so far. Feedback will be used to guide future remote teaching. In December, our students took part in an art project with an orphanage in Bryansk, Russia entitled Kindness Across the World. This project was facilitated by the Charity - To Children with Love. Our students took part in fantastic productions prior to the Christmas break. The junior infant play was Snowmen at Sunrise and the senior infants play was called Ralph the Reindeer. Parents received a recording of the performances.
School Grounds	Jim created two beautiful wooden herb gardens for the school. We look forward to growing some herbs very soon.
Parents' Association Report	Our first ever Christmas Culture Crawl raised a staggering €1897. The Christmas Raffle raised €980. The PA want to thank everyone for supporting these events.
Acknowledgment	The BOM acknowledged the tremendous work done by staff and management both during school closures and also on the safe reopening of the school in March.
